

Here is a little more of a formal request for you. Hopefully, this is better than my initial email, I also included a photo of my setup in this email as well.

I would like to utilize the parking lot at Eufay for my mobile bookstore. I would like to ideally use the space approximately ten days a month for approximately 3-4 hours each day. My bookstore is operated out of a cargo trailer that I converted into a bookstore. I have provided a photo here, just in case you would like to see it before making a decision.

Thank you so much for your time!

Message:	Hi! I recently opened a mobile bookshop and was wondering what I would need to do in order to utilize your parking lots for pop ups. I've spoken with Brandon with Blue Tulip and would like to do something similar if possible! You can find photos of my set up on Instagram @justbooks.andthings if you'd like! Thank you!
